

2010 Energy & Climate Action Award Applicants

Community Planning & Development

City of Fort St. John	Comprehensive approach with multiple legislative tools, and broad public engagement on CEEP
City of North Vancouver	Comprehensive approach and broad public engagement on CEEP
City of Prince George	Downtown district energy system and community mapping project
City of Quesnel	Feasibility work on a district energy system
City of Richmond	Integration of a sustainability framework into planning and climate action strategies
District of Elkford	First OCP in BC with a climate change adaptation strategy and a GHG reduction strategy
District of Saanich	Comprehensive and integrated climate action plan
District of Tofino	Broad suite of actions to reduce GHG emissions
Fraser Valley Regional District	Developing an open-source GHG community modelling tool with Sustainability Solutions Group
Islands Trust	Comprehensive public engagement process to coordinate targets for 19 OCPs
Squamish-Lillooet Regional District	The first Regional Energy Resilience (Peak Oil) Task Force in Canada

Corporate Operations

Carbon Neutral Kootenays	Large-scale climate action collaboration by three Regional Districts and Columbia Basin Trust
City of Campbell River	Sustainability framework used to guide the development of City Hall's green roof
City of Colwood	Achievements in reducing corporate carbon emissions and energy use
City of Fernie	GHG emission reduction plan and committee
City of Nanaimo	A cross-departmental sustainability committee
City of Pitt Meadows	Energy and emissions sustainability plan leading to amendments in numerous City plans
District of Maple Ridge	Energy efficiency and renewable energy for Leisure Centre and City Hall information technology
Township of Langley	Water treatment plant heating system retrofit with a groundwater-to-air heat pump